In Memoriam: Neil Curtis 1932-2009

We regret to inform the pharmacy community of the passing of Neil P. Curtis on Friday, September 11, 2009. Neil was born in St. John's, Newfoundland on November 21, 1932 and graduated from St. Bonaventure's College in St. John in 1950. He then apprenticed at Theatre Pharmacy and the Old General Hospital in St. John's and was first registered as a pharmacist in 1954.

From 1954 to 1960 he served as Chief Pharmacist at the General Hospital. After further administrative and managerial education he became the Assistant Administrator at the General Hospital, and was later the Pharmacy Consultant at the Department of Health until 1979.

Among his many accomplishments and activities, Neil was also instrumental in establishing a local presence of the Canadian Society of Hospital Pharmacists in Newfoundland and Labrador, serving as the first local president.

For more information and for funeral arrangement details, please contact the Newfoundland & Labrador Pharmacy Board (www.nlpb.ca).
